

The Charleston Amusement Hall, which became the Church house and school during the 1890's, and served the Charleston Ward until it burned down in 1949.

The old Charleston Town Hall, used extensively until just recently.